

Domkal Girls' College
Internal Assessment, 2020
Semester-IV

Subject: English

Marks: 10

Paper: VIII (British Literature: 18th Century)

Answer any five of the following multiple-choice questions:

5x2=10

1. Samuel Johnson's London is a poem written on the basis of -
 - a) Juvenal's Third Satire b) Juvenal's Tenth Satire c) Juvenal's First Satire d) Juvenal's Fourth Satire.
2. The opening lines of Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard are set at -
 - a) Midnight b) Noon c) Daybreak d) Twilight.
3. What is the subtitle of Eliza Haywood's Fantomina? –
 - a) Love in a Challenge b) Love in a Maze c) Love in Beauty d) Love in Excess.
4. William Congreve's The Way of the World is dedicated to –
 - a) Charles II b) Horace c) Ralph, Earl of Montague d) William of Orange
5. Who wrote Gulliver's Travels? –
 - a) Lemuel Gulliver b) Jonathan swift c) Alexander Pope d) Joseph Addison.
6. William Congreve's The Way of the World was published in –
 - a) 1700 b) 1699 c) 1701 d) 1702.
7. How many stanzas are there in Gray's Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard? –
 - a) 30 b) 33 c) 32 d) 34.
8. Who is/are possibly referred to as "Thales" in Samuel Johnson's London? –
 - a) Umbricius b) Richard Savage c) The people of London d) Sir Robert Walpole.

Instructions for Examinees

1. To take the test please follow the link to Google forms and answer any 5 of the Multiple choice questions.
2. Anyone who cannot use the Google forms may download the question paper and write the answers and send it back through mail to dgcenglish20@gmail.com or whatsapp. @9734136074.
3. Anyone who has a problem with this can also submit physically at the college, but this must be treated as a last resort due to Covid -19 precautions.

Form link : <https://forms.gle/HYnm5doQzzmQjeT88>